DISCUSSION: The Director, Nebraska Service Center, denied the employment-based immigrant visa petition. The matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The petitioner is rehabilitation business. It seeks to employ the beneficiary permanently in the United States as a speech language pathologist. The petitioner seeks to classify the beneficiary as an alien worker pursuant to section 203(b)(2) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1153(b)(2), as an advanced degree professional. The record of proceeding shows that the Form I-140 petition was filed August 9, 2006. The director determined that the petitioner had failed to establish its ability to pay the proffered wage at the time the priority date was established and continuing to the present.

Review of U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) records indicates that, subsequent to filing the instant petition, the alien filed a Form I-485 Application to Adjust Status, receipt number [REDACTED] which was approved on November 9, 2010. Because the alien has adjusted to lawful permanent resident status, further pursuit of the matter at hand is moot.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed as moot based on the alien's adjustment to lawful permanent resident status.
